

What is BROWN & WHITE GOODS (B&W) EXTENDED WARRANTY (EW)?

B&W Warranty is a service pledge (service or insurance), which consists of extending the manufacturer's original warranty by up to 1, 2 or 3 years.

B&W Warranty coverage starts when the manufacturer's warranty ends, and offers the same warranty as the manufacturer, including the possibility of replacing the product.

B&W Warranty must be subscribed at the moment of equipment's purchase or, in the limit, 90 days before the expiration of the manufacturer's warranty.

Eligible Goods

- Washing machine
- Dishwasher
- Tumble dryer
- Fridge
- Freezer
- Cooker
- Microwave
- Oven
- Television
- LCD
- Plasma TV
- DVD Player
- Video Camera
- Photo Camera
- MP3
- Vacuum Cleaner
- AC Units
- Iron
- Pressing Center
- Small Kitchen Appliances
- Desktop PCs

Coverage

In the event of mechanical, electrical or electronic failure during the normal use of the product and in the period of the warranty, the company may choose between:

- Repair the product including labour and spare parts costs. First option: execute the repairman in the insured's home.
- Replace the product with another of similar characteristics. When there are no spare parts or the repair is more expensive than a new one.

Some Policy Exclusions

- Accidental damages
 - Expenses arising from the diagnosis of the damage or repair of a product if it is not coverage
 - Commercial use
 - Maintenance, cleaning, re-setting, esthetic repairs
 - Negligence, acts of nature, etc.
-